ANDY DICK LIVING IN SQUALOR

It isn't just Andy Dick's behavior and career that are in shambles — his home is just as chaotic. Star has uncovered that the actor, who has a history of substance abuse and was recently arrested for stealing a $1,000 necklace off a man's neck, is living like a squatter in a roach-infested apartment that serves as a flophouse for his junkyard friends. "It's no bigger than 700 square feet and filthy. It stinks and is filled with trash," cried a fellow complex resident. "Andy leaves the door open and lets anyone crash there, whether it's friends or random cash-strapped strangers. And his neighbors find his behavior even more revolting!" "He's terrorizing the residents," divulged the source. "Andy has barged in on their apartments — he even tried to make out with a guy in front of his girlfriend. It's amazing he hasn't been thrown out yet." ★

WTFace?

JEN'S PLASTIC NEW LOOK

"I am not injecting sh*t into my face," crowed Jennifer Aniston just this August, but the Horrible Bosses 2 star seems to be a horrible fiber tool. The actress shocked viewers with her oddly puffy face during an appearance on The Graham Norton Show in late November. "Jennifer looks as if she has had fillers injected into her cheeks — they appear very heavy," says NYC-based plastic surgeon Dr. Norman Rowe. "The injections should have been spread out more to avoid this effect." Dr. Rowe also guesses she's had Botox in her forehead and fillers in her lower lip. Even Jen herself has said a trip to the doctor's wouldn't stop Father Time in his tracks. "I think, 'Oh God, if you only know how much older you look,'" she said during that same August interview. "[They] are trying to stop the clock, and all you can see is an insecure person who won't let themselves just age." ★
